Name: _____   Date: _____

"Big Joe's Funeral" Part 4   Team: _____

Due Date: _____-SO PLAN ACCORDINGLY!

Directions: Choose two assignments TOTAL. One assignment from Part A and one from Part B.   Complete the work on separate paper.

Please remember, a paragraph is 8-10 sentences in length.

Part A:

- Explain, in a well written paragraph, two things that you would like about living on 145th Street. Tell me what you would like, why you would like it, etc. Be detailed!

- Explain, in a well written paragraph, two things that you would not like about living on 145th Street. Tell me what you wouldn't like, why you wouldn't like it, etc. Be detailed!

- Explain, in a well written paragraph, with whom you would rather spend time with, Peaches or Big Joe. Give good reasons! Explain your reasoning and logic behind your decision!

- Explain, in a well written paragraph, why you think Big Joe gave himself a funeral. What was he trying to accomplish? Was he successful? Be detailed.

- Explain, in a well written paragraph, why you think Peaches got so angry. What was it that upset her so much? Think about what her life has been like. Be detailed!

Part B:

- Draw a picture of one scene from the story "Big Joe's Funeral." Be sure to label all of the different characters and scenery. You must use color and it should NOT be on lined paper.

- Think about Peaches. What character traits does she possess? Write a theme song for Peaches that you think she'd want playing in the background whenever she showed up in a new place. (Think about how athletes pick a song to be introduced to the public.) You can write to the melody of an existing song or create your own. THE LYRICS MUST BE ORIGINAL!

- Think about Big Joe. What character traits does he possess? Write a theme song for Big Joe that you think he'd want playing in the background whenever he showed up in a new place. (Think about how athletes pick a song to be introduced to the public.) You can write to the melody of an existing song or create your own. THE LYRICS MUST BE ORIGINAL!