WARNING! WARNING!

Many products today come with warnings that seem pretty obvious—and ridiculous. A hair dryer warning reads, “Do not use in tub.” The carton for an iron says, “Do not iron clothes on your body.” A jar of peanuts includes this note: “Warning: May contain peanuts.” A carton for an unassembled bicycle says, “Do not ride until assembled.”

Directions: Write six original and obvious warnings for anything you choose and illustrate them in the boxes below.
