

Name: _____

Date: _____

TKaM Pages 38-48

Team: _____

What is Ewell's problem with Atticus? If Atticus is a lawyer and doing his job, why is Bob Ewell angry? What did he expect from Atticus? (p 40)

If anyone else were Tom Robinson's lawyer, would Bob Ewell have the same problem? Why or why not? (p40)

Draw a picture of the night before when the medal was put in the tree of the person who you think put it there. (p41)

What could Scout have done instead of fighting Cecil Jacobs? (p42)

Why is it so hard for people to walk away from a fight when they are offended? Fill in the chart with the benefits of fighting and not fighting. (p42)

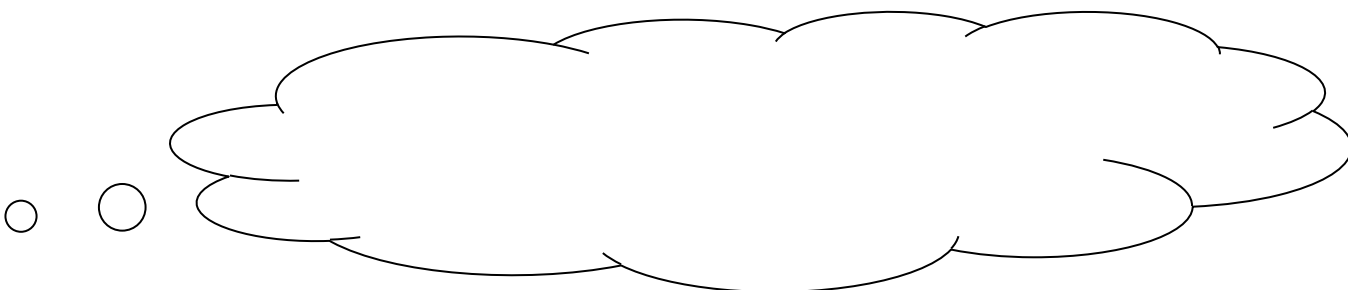

Fighting when offended	Walking away when offended
• -	• -
• -	• -
• -	• -
• -	• -
• -	• -

What would have happened if Scout walked away from the fight? (p42)

Develop five reasons Atticus is defending Tom Robinson? (p42)

1-
2-
3-
4-
5-

Fill in the thought bubble with Mr. Radley's thoughts on why he is filling the tree hole with cement. (p44)

(p45) Who do you think is giving all of the trinkets from the tree hole and why would they do this?

(p47) “ The news has gotten ‘round the county about my bringin’ Tom Robinson back to the jail. I heard there might be trouble from that bunch out at Old Sarum.” What trouble are they talking about?

Summary pyramid

Row 1- What is Tom’s wife’s name?

Row 2- Name of the person Scout fought.

Row 3- Two things found in the tree’s knothole.

Row 4- The reason Atticus decided to defend Tom Robinson.

Row 5- A prediction of what is going to happen after Tom Robinson is brought back into town.