Information Stations – Where the Red Fern Grows

Station:

1. What happened to Wilson Rawls' first books?

2. Why did he begin writing again?

Station:

3. Choose 4 of your own words (adjectives), to describe the Great Depression. Explain.

4. Why would a self-providing family (they make their food/shelter by trapping and farming) living outside of a city not experience as much devastation during the great depression?

Station:

5. In your own words, explain how the Depression and the stock market crash impacted other countries in the world.

6. What is the gold standard?

7. Based on the information about the Great Depression, predict the attitudes toward money of the main characters in Where the Red Fern Grows.

Station:

7. What four states do the Ozark Mountain Regions cover?

8. Where the Red Fern Grows is set in northeastern Oklahoma. What Indian nation inhabited this area of the Ozarks?

9. Using this information why might have Billy's family settled in this area?

Station :

10a. According to the pictures and possible activities, make a prediction for how the main characters entertained themselves in this geographical area. (Remember: The characters in the book live during the 1930s and lead a modest lifestyle, therefore, “Taking a hot air balloon ride” would not be an appropriate answer!)

10b. If you went to the Ozark region now, what might you pick to do? Why?

Station 6:

11. Define the following words:

Bawl: _____

Bay: _____
