

Name: _____
"The Streak" WS5

Date: _____
Team: _____

Directions: Read all of the assignment options thoroughly and completely. Then, choose an assignment. Place a smiley next to your name on your completed assignment. Complete the work on separate paper. Please remember, a paragraph is 8-10 sentences in length.

- Is Jamie Farrell a realistic character? Think back to our discussion and do-now where we talked about what makes a character real. Defend your opinion by giving at least three text based reasons that he is like someone who really exists or why Jamie is more of a fictional creation. One paragraph in length-remember to start with a topic sentence, present/explain your examples, and end with a conclusion sentence!
- Is Jamie's life really controlled by good and bad luck? Defend your opinion by giving at least three text based reasons. One paragraph in length-remember to start with a topic sentence, present/explain your examples, and end with a conclusion sentence!
- "The Streak" ends quickly and almost abruptly. Write a brief continuation of the story that shows where you see Jamie going in the next few days or weeks. Two paragraphs in length. Use the story as your foundation so your
- Explain one thing you would change about the reading and why you would change it in one paragraph. Then, explain one thing that you think Walter Dean Myers did really well and explain why you liked this aspect of the story in a paragraph. (Two paragraphs in total!)
- "The Streak" has many quotable Moments. Pick two of your favorite quotations from the reading. Explain why you picked your quote in one paragraph for each example (two total paragraphs).
- Create poetry in motion. Create a poem that describes the main conflict of the reading. The poem should be at least 12-15 lines in length. In a separate paragraph, then explain why you picked that conflict.