To Kill A Mockingbird Anticipation Guide

The following are the statements from today's Run to the Corners class activity.

Directions: Circle the five that most stuck with you during the activity or that most interest you now.

1. In America, everyone has the same chance to succeed as everyone else.
2. A hero is someone who succeeds at whatever he or she sets out to do.
3. Majority rule is the best way because most people do what is right.
4. All people are created to be equal.
5. A hero is born, not made.
6. It's okay to be different.
7. Nobody is all good or all bad.
8. You can usually tell what kind of a person someone is based on how he or she looks.
9. If someone stays away from other people, it's probably because he or she has something to hide.
10. Some words are so offensive; they should never be said or written.
11. No one is above the law.
12. Under our U.S. justice system, everyone is treated equally under the law.
13. The old saying, "Sticks and stones may break my bones but words will never hurt me," is true.
14. When the law does not succeed in punishing criminals, citizens should carry out the punishment themselves.

Directions: On the back of this paper, explain why you answered as you did during the activity to the five statements you just circled.

Each response should be 4-6 sentences each. Your response should start with the chosen statement.
